BADGER MANAGER VISITOR OF ZION

C. G. Roe Arrives in Interest of Wisconsin Football Team.

CHANCE FOR THE 'VARSITY

OFFERS TO MEET UTAH ELEVEN ON LOCAL GRIDIRON.

F the proper arrangements can be made this morning between Manager Riser of the University football team and Manager Clifford G. Roe of the University of Wisconsin eleven, the football enthusiasts of this city will have the opportunity of witnessing one of the greatest football teams in the country play on a local gridiron. Manager Roe arrived in the city yesterday and registered at the Knutsford, it being his intention to go on to the coast at noon today, where on to the coast at noon today, where ors were even. he will arrange a schedule of games with the coast teams. He said last evening that his team was intending to play the University of California in San Francisco, Christmas day, and the Stanford eleven at Pasadena on New Year's day. This will bring the team through Salt Lake about a week before Christmas and, according to Manager Roe, they would be only too glad to meet the local university. Until he arrived in Salt Lake it had been the intention of Manager Roe to have the team stop off at Reno, Nev., and play the Nevada eleven the Saturday before Christmas, but when informed that he might get a game with the Utah ag-gregation he at once said he would rather play here than in the Nevada

It is known that the local boys have signified a desire to play the strong Wisconsin team ever since their western trip was first talked of, but so far they have been unable to get any satisfactory answer from the eastern aggregation. A meeting between Manager Riser and Manager Roe this morning may accomplish the desired results, which will be greeted with treat externation but the Salt Lake

AGGIES MAY DISBAND.

Several Players Are Compelled to Leave the Game.

Leave the Game.

(Special to The Herald.)

Logan, Nov. 17.—There is a strong probability that the Aggles will disband very shortly and that the A. C. U.-N. G. U. game, scheduled for Thanksgiving day, will not be played. The Aggles are not at all discouraged by their defeat on Saturday, but their ranks are being thinned. Crawford received orders from home last week to quit playing football, and only by dint of much persuasion did he secure permission to play in Saturday's game.

Tuttle has received similar instructions from his parents, and Fenn, the speedy little halfback, has received summary orders from his father to confine his efforts at football to "rooting" for his team.

When this became known to the other members of the team sown at the other were a little behind in their studies took up the matter and began talking disbandment. Other members want to continue playing until Christmas. Just what the outcome will be is hard to tell now. Coach Campbell is ill with the grip and tonstilits and Manager Swendsen could not be located today. People here will be keenly disappointed if the Aggies quit now, as the Thanksgiving day game has been looked forward to with great interest. The scrub Aggies will likely play their engagement with the Pocatello academy team, and in the event of the big eleven quitting will get the Thanksgiving date for their game.

The Logan team is trying to arrange for its return game with the Ogden High school, and desires to play some time this week.

The big Websters win.

The big Webster team defeated the Eighth East team yesterday by a score of 25 to 0. Several of the players showed up in good form, including Judson, Jackson and Moon. Marks at right guard also played star ball. Both teams were in good condition and played fast ball throughout the game. While Bassett and Jackson were doing the Alphonse and Gaston act at one stage of the game, Judson grabbed the ball and ran the entire length of the field for a touchdown. tire length of the field for a touchdown.

OBJECTIONS

Authorities Will Not Allow Fakers and Meal Ticket Fighters to Congregate in This City.

Quite a stir was created in boxing circles yesterday by the announcement that the authorities might stop the game in this city this winter. Manager Thompson of the new Western Athletic club was seen, and admitted that some objections had been raised against the sport, but said that after the talk he had with the authorities he thought these might be overcome.

As far as can be learned, the whole trouble lies in the manner the contests were pulled off here last winter, and the many objectionable fighters who were permitted to remain around the city during that time. The authorities are of the opinion that the same condition of affairs would again exist and naturality enough entered a strong objection.

The club is under an entirely different management in the hands of Mr. Thompson, and his past record in the sporting line in this city is such that there is no fear of a repetition of such conditions while he handles the club.

Manager Thompson said positively that he would not allow anything of the fake order to take place at the club, and when sany of the meal ticket variety of fighters, such as made this town their headquarters as made this town their headquarters and the would be given a polite invitation to move on, as nothing was doing in their line.

Mayor Thompson was seen last evening and said he had no objection wheevering the recent trouble, said:

He said, however, that he would not for a minute allow the town to fill up with all kinds of riff-raff pugs, who did nothing but fake a living off the public, and that if this objectionable feature could be overcome he would have no objections to the game going on. The stand taken by the mayor will meet with the approval of all those who like to witness boxing contests. As long as the sport is conducted on the square it will meet with public approval, and it is hoped by all the local sporting fraternity that Manager Thompson will be allowed to proceed under those conditions and those conditions only.

Forbes Gets Decision

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Clarence Forbes won the decision over Johnny Reagan of New York, after six rounds of fast fighting, tonight. Both men were clever, but Forbes proved faster and took a decided lead during the last three rounds. In the same ring Kid Broad of Cleveland and Young Howatt of Chicago went six rounds to a draw. Broad appeared to have much the better of the fight, and the verdict was decidedly unpopular.

It appears that the sentence of death passed on the revolutionary general. Uribe-Uribe who recently capitulated to the government forces, was not carried out, because General Perdomo observed that General Herrera of the revolutionary army has fourteen government generals as prisoners, and he might avenge the death of Uribe-Uribe on them.

LATTER DAY FADS AND FAN-CIES GIVEN CONSIDERATION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Justice supreme court today delivered an opinion in the case of the American school of magnetic healing vs. J. M. McAnultyk, the latter being postmaster at Nevada, Mo., where the school is located. The proceedings grew out of a fraud order issued by the postoffice department prohibiting the postmaster school. The original bill asked for an injunction to prohibit the postmaster from obeying this order. On trial in the United States circuit court for the western district of Missouri the department's order was sustained on demurrer. Today's opinion reversed that judgment, but in delivering it. reversed that judgment, but in delivering it Justice Peckham said there was no intention of passing upon the various constitutional objections set out in the bill, the intention of the court being to "simply hold that the admitted facts show no violation of the statules cited, but an erroneous order given by the postmaster general order given by the postmaster general to the defendant, which the courts have the power to grant relief against." The action of the court was accom-

Mind Treatment. In reviewing the case, Justice Peck-ham quoted the plea of the magnetic school that one human mind may con-trol another in treating disease, and

"One person may believe it of greater efficacy than another, but surely it cannot be said it is a fraud for one person to contend that the mind has an effect upon the body and its physical condition greater than even a vast cal condition greater than even a vast majority of intelligent people might be willing to admit or believe. Even intelligent people may and do differ among themselves as to the extent of this mental effect. Because the complainants might or did claim to be able to effect cures by reason of working upon and affecting the mental powers of the individual and directing them toward the accomplishment of a cure toward the accomplishment of a cure of the disease under which he might be suffering, who can say that it is a fraud or false pretense or promise with-in the meaning of the statutes? UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT.

Interpretative Readings by Three American Authors.

An altogether delightful entertainment was given in the Congregational church last night when three talented American authors, Opie Read, Charles E. Banks and Wallace Bruce Amesbary, gave interpretative readings of their own production as well as those of some other contemporary writers. The church was crowded, even to the gallery, and the audience, rather cold and critical at first, soon became quite responsive, bestowed quite enthusiastic applause upon each of the three. The trio is exceptionally well balanced. Read, with his quaint character stories and humorous sketches of southern life and illustrative of negro philosophy, had a splendid foil in Mr. Amesbary, polished, dramatic, versatile and a master of Illinois French dialect. MAYOR SCHMITZ CUTS RATHER WIDE SWATH

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Eugene E. Schmitz, the Union-Labor mayor of San Francisco, told the members of Chicago's trades unions tonight that they could place their own representatives in the city hall if they would forget all personal differences and work for the common cause. Notwithstanding that all but one of the labor candidates on the Cook county ticket were defeated in the recent election, Mr. Schmitz said, he was sure the proposed labor ticket at the coming spring election could be made successful. Mr. Schmitz arrived at Chicago in the morning and spent the day among the laboring men. His speech tonight was made before 2.500 union men at North Side Turner hall. Earlier in the evening he had been the guest of the Musicians union at a dinner at the Briggs house and had been presented to Mayor Harrison in the council chamber, where he also addressed the aldermen.

Upon his arrival here Mayor Schmitz registered at one of the leading hotels, but left the house when informed by the labor leaders that its management was "unfair" to union musicians.
